Additional notes

Footnotes:

<sup>1</sup> Affordable housing is defined as costing no more than 35% of the income of a low- or moderate-income individual.

<sup>2</sup> Moderate-income individuals in New Hampshire are defined as earning between 50% - 80% of the Area Median Income (AMI) as defined by HUD. Low-income individuals in New Hampshire are defined as earning less than 50% of the Area Median Income (AMI).

<sup>3</sup> In addition to affordable housing, community development services include community- or tribal-based childcare, educational, health, social service, or workforce development or job training programs targeted to low- or moderate-income individuals.
