Bruins Forward "Heads" to Primary Bank March 5
Bank Hosts Merrimack Native, Fan Favorite Tim Schaller

Bedford, N.H. (February 12, 2018)—Merrimack, N.H. native and Boston Bruins forward Tim Schaller will visit Primary Bank, located at 207 Route 101 in Bedford, N.H., Monday, March 5, from 4-6 PM. Schaller will be available to pose for photos, sign autographs, and visit with hockey fans of all ages!

There is no cost to attend this event.

Schaller, a product of Merrimack High School and Providence College, has become a fan favorite over the course of two seasons in Boston. His skill as a forechecker has been instrumental in the Bruins' success this season, and the "Timmy Heads" with Schaller's face on them can often be seen in the stands at the Garden.

There will be a private meet and greet prior to the event where selected youth hockey players can interact with Schaller. If you are part of a youth hockey program and interested in nominating a child for this exclusive event, please email events@primarybanknh.com. Space is limited to the first 20 youth players, and only one player per team may be nominated.

During the public autograph session, fans may make purchases to benefit the Jimmy Fund, Schaller's charity of choice. These items include:

- Raffle tickets to win one of three #Timmyheads T-shirts signed by the entire Bruins team for $5 as part of a season-long raffle;
- #Timmyheads t-shirts for $25 (seen at right), with 100% of the proceeds from the shirts benefiting the Jimmy Fund. The first 150 T-shirt purchasers will also receive a $15 restaurant voucher to Great NH Restaurants (T-BONES, Cactus Jack's, and the Copper Door); and
- Timmy Heads cutouts, as seen in the picture above, for $5.

There will also be a limited quantity of complimentary items on hand for the autograph session, including pictures, and Primary Bank hockey pucks.
